

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

V.

JAMES A. WOLFE,

Defendant.

CRIMINAL NO. 18-CR-170 (KBJ)

GOVERNMENT’S UNOPPOSED MOTION TO AMEND BRIEFING SCHEDULE

The United States of America, moving by and through its undersigned counsel, respectfully moves the Court to continue the sentencing memorandum deadlines in this case. The Government asks that the initial sentencing memorandum for both parties be due on Tuesday, December 11, 2018, and that any replies be due by Friday, December 14, 2018, at 5 p.m.. We are asking the court to maintain the sentencing date of Thursday, December 20, 2018, at 5 p.m. This is particularly important to the defendant. Mr. Wolfe’s son has been granted leave from the military, and is flying from Korea for the sentencing. Provided that the sentencing date is not disturbed, the defendant does not object to this revised briefing schedule. In support of this motion, the government states:

1. The Defendant pled guilty on October 15, 2018, at which time the Court ordered the current sentencing date and memorandum deadlines. The government requests additional time to prepare its sentencing memorandum. The government believes that the requested time – 5 additional days – will be sufficient to achieve this purpose.

2. Given the posture of the case, where the defendant is on release to the community, the government sees no significant prejudice to this motion, provided that there is no change to the sentencing date of December 20, 2018.

3. For the foregoing reasons, the government seeks to modify the briefing schedule as described herein.

Respectfully submitted,
